

William Phillips to Edward Lhwyd,
Brecon, 19 December 1701

SOURCE: Bodl. MS. Ashmole 1817a, fol. 133.

ADDRESS: To Mr Edward Lhwyd att | the Musæum in | Oxon | These.

Brecon 19o Dec. 1701

Dear Sir

I received your letter by the Bearer and have sent you by him the Manuscript which Mr Tanner formerly had, and which I suppose you wrote for. When you have perus'd this, I will send you likewise according to your desire the M. S. I have of Howell Dhas Laws and should think my self very fortunate, if I could in this or any other way serve a Person that has taken so much pains, and spent so much time to oblige and thereby to deserve so well, as you have done, of Learned Men. I desire you would be so kinde as to present my service to Mr Howells and to assure yourself that I am with much respect your humble servant

Wm: Phillips